

Sunday School Workers of GILA AND GRAHAM COUNTIES To Hold Session in Globe

A union convention in which nearly all the Sunday schools in Gila and lower Graham counties are expected to take part will be held in this city on Thursday and Friday, May 6 and 7.

It is expected that nearly all denominations in this part of the country will be represented in the convention. The program is a varied one and will consist not only of addresses along religious lines, but talks of educational value will be made by some of the best known educators in this part of the country.

One feature which promises to be very interesting will be that at the close of the session, an illustrated lecture on the life of Paul, by Reverend E. G. Decker, of the Globe M. E. church.

With the exception of this lecture, all meetings will be held in the First Baptist church. For the lecture, the M. E. church will be used.

Reverend D. C. Williams will preside over the convention, with Reverend H. P. Cory as secretary. Each Sunday school in Gila and lower Graham counties is requested to send delegates and to report their names in advance to Reverend M. Cory, so that accommodations and entertainment may be provided.

"So you contemplate entering into a life partnership with Miss Billion?" the old man said, smiling fondly at his son. "Of course you are old enough to judge for yourself, but it certainly seems to me—"

"Oh, that's all right," the youth hastened to assure him. "You see, her father will give us a house and lot, her uncle a handsome check, and she has made quite a little money of her own—"

"And what do you contribute to the partnership?" the old man demanded, with a twinkle in his eye.
The young man blushed slightly.
"Well, er, principally the name, dad, principally the name," he admitted.—Harper's Weekly.

PRESBYTERIANS ARE PROSPEROUS

INTERESTING REPORT READ AT ANNUAL MEETING—GLOBE'S
FINE RECORD

Rev. H. P. Cory has returned from the annual meeting of the Presbytery of Southern Arizona at Morenci, which closed its sessions Monday evening. Reverend W. W. Breckenridge of Tucson was chosen moderator for the ensuing year. Reverend H. P. Cory, pastor of the Presbyterian church in Globe, was clerk of the meeting. Much important business was transacted and the reports showed an excellent growth of the work of this denomination during the past year. One item of more than usual interest was the organization and rapid growth of the Globe Presbyterian church.

The reports showed that the contributions of the seventeen churches in Globe, including Mexican and Indian churches, amounted to $504 for home missions; $309 for foreign missions and $299 for the other church boards, as against $297, $177 and $136, the year previous, nearly doubling the amount in one year.

The churches have raised for local expenses $20,630. The total membership of the churches in the presbytery is 1,757, 152 having been added on examination and 131 on certificates during the year. Reverend H. P. Cory preached to a large audience in Morenci on Sunday night.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 23.—The house this afternoon passed the McMillen state-wide prohibition bill. The measure now goes back to the senate for concurrence in two amendments of minor importance. The bill provides for submitting the question of state-wide prohibition to the voters of the state in 1910.

BISBEE MINISTER IS READY TO FACE TRIAL JURY

STEWART SURPRISES OFFICERS
BY SURRENDERING AT POLICE HEADQUARTERS.

HE HAD NOT BEEN IN MEXICO

GIVES APPEARANCE BOND FOR A THOUSAND DOLLARS AND WILL HAVE HEARING NEXT WEEK.

ITHACA, April 24.—Harry C. Beckart is under arrest. After a fruitless search by the officers, in which no trace of him was found, he walked into Justice High's court and announced that he wanted to surrender. Constable Denny Twomey, who held the warrant, was sent for and the minister was placed in custody. He is charged with an attempt to criminally assault little Minnie Conchin, practically the same charge which was dismissed against him by Justice Murphy of Lowell.

Stewart's bond was fixed at $1,000, which was furnished.
In an interview with a Review reporter Stewart denied that he had been out of the country at any time since he left here on the 10th. He told of his actions after his hearing at Lowell as follows:

"I immediately took a street car for Bisbee. Here friends advised me to leave at once, as they said there was considerable feeling against me. It was C. & A. pay day and many men were in the city, they said. In response to their request and on account of the belief that my life was in danger, I left. I paid the conductor my fare to Douglas, stopped at a hotel there and have since been there.

"No; I have not been in communication with Bisbee, as you suggest, have not read what the papers have had to say of my case, and not until yesterday at noon did I learn there was a second warrant out for me. I immediately took a drink of water and started out for Bisbee.

"In regard to the charge against me, I have never been on the stand or made any public statement. I deny the charge. In regard to your question as to whether or not I intend abandoning the ministry, I will say that I will abide by the decision of the conference."

BUILDS BIG BOATS

JAPANESE ADMIRAL TAKES OF FOUR DREADNAUGHTS FOR FLOWERY KINGDOM.

VANCOUVER, April 24.—Vice Admiral Baron Sakamoto, chief of naval education in Japan, sailed for Yokohama today on his way from London, where he represented his country in the international naval conference. He said:

"My country is now building four vessels of the Dreadnaught type. The first one, laid down two years ago, will be completed this year. They are all of twenty thousand tons. I think the limit of size will have been reached when warships reach 25,000 tons. Speed and gun power were the factors in the Russo-Japanese war. There never was a remote possibility of Japan and the United States becoming embroiled."

SLAYER OF DOW AND ORR CAPTURED BY PURSUERS

SAN BERNARDINO, April 24.—James Nobles, a miner who shot and killed Frank Orr and Arthur Dow, near Newberry mountain, seventeen miles south of Searchlight, was captured by an automobile posse headed by Deputy Sheriff Frank Colton at Connor ranch. According to Nobles' story, he shot in self-defense after a trivial quarrel over the snatching of a hat from his head by Orr.

Dow was shot in the back. Nobles is in the Searchlight jail, and smokes and reads while awaiting his preliminary trial Friday.

EARTHQUAKE IN SPAIN.

LISBON, April 24.—There was a violent shock of earthquake here today. The ground rose and fell in wave-like motion, buildings swayed and a number of them were partly demolished. The populace fled in panic to the streets.

For a time fears were entertained of a repetition of the great earthquake of 1755, which demolished the city. No material damage was done, although the ground rose and fell in wave-like motions, buildings swayed and the walls of a number of old houses were broken. No one was hurt, but fires broke out and great alarm prevailed.

SCIENCE AND NATURE.

A Great Scientist's Theory and Its Dramatic Refutation.

No one can set down laws for earthquakes. It was just about three years ago that the writer was in Martinique when that island was in a state of constant quiver from seismic disturbances. The late Angelo Heilprin, professor of geology at Yale and one of the most distinguished scientists of the age, had come to Martinique for the purpose of looking into its earthquakes and volcanoes. He explained this theory, a very interesting one—that the earthquakes were due to a gradual subsidence of the sea bed of the Caribbean.

My home was in Brooklyn. I asked, somewhat nervously, as to whether he thought that city would ever be subjected to similar disturbances.

"I will answer that," said the careful professor, "by relating a bit of history. The late Sir William Dawson was addressing the British Association For the Advancement of Science, and the subject of his address was the stability of the Atlantic coast of the North American continent and the scientific reasons there were for believing that no great seismic movement could take place in that region."

"While in the middle of his address a cablegram was handed to him, one announcing that the city of Charleston, S. C., had been destroyed by an earthquake."

"There was a moment's pause while Sir William read the message which had so directly refuted his labored argument. Then, rising to the occasion, he read it to the audience and, folding it up, said that, while his address had dealt with the theoretical side of science, this message which he had just received was one which had to do with the practical side of nature."—New York Times.

Approves of the Fighters.

"Every schoolroom should have a picture of John L. Sullivan, James J. Corbett or some other great man hanging on its walls to show the boys what physical development means," said Dr. Walter Cornell, assistant medical inspector, in an address on "Physical Defects of Children" recently delivered at the normal school, Thirteenth and Spring Garden streets.

There was an audible titter among the teachers when the speaker pronounced the names of these prize ring heroes.

"Yes, I mean it," Dr. Cornell said emphatically. "They ought to be held up as examples of physical fitness, just in the same way that we hang up 'God Bless Our Home' mottoes. They'd work by suggestion. Opposed to the statue or picture of John L. Sullivan I should suggest a representation of a physical wreck, just to give the youngsters a demonstration of both extremes."—Philadelphia North American.

Where Noise Is Salable.

"You know, of course," said a watch factory foreman, "how Lynn captured the African shoe trade making shoes that squeaked loudly. The native considers the discomfort and expense of American shoes quite futile if they don't squeak as he walks like an ill greased cart wheel. We have now captured the African cheap watch trade by turning out a good dollar watch that ticks like a boiler factory. You could hear this tick through a feather mattress. In fact, natives wearing our watches tick audibly. As they swagger along, their American shoes squeaking and their American watches ticking, they give out as much noise as a brass band."—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The American Abroad.

Louis N. Park, the enterprising literary American who was placed in charge of the lord mayor's show in London, turned what had come to be regarded as a sort of circus procession into an interesting pageant. Shakespeare was accomplished by a picturesque entourage of characters from his plays. Chaucer was followed by a band of personages of his creating, and Spenser and Marlowe were attended in like manner. A striking feature was William Caxton on a float with a group of printers working an ancient printing press. These historical pageants will be continued progressively in future shows.—Exchange.

Bought a Wife at 50 Cents a Pound.

At Kolked, Hungary, the custom is that a bridegroom must pay the bride's parents a certain sum for the privilege of marrying their daughter. Jan Koetvoos was engaged in a dispute with his fiancée's parents as to the amount he should pay them, and the mayor was called upon to arbitrate. Being an expert in cattle, but not in women, the mayor decided the value of the girl should be estimated by weight and thought that 50 cents a pound would be a fair price. After the girl's weight had been ascertained Koetvoos handed over the money and was soon married.

A Queer Advertisement.

Some queer advertisements appear in the Australian papers. Here is one from a recent issue of the Sydney Morning Herald: "Wanted—Some kind person to adopt young gentleman absolutely homeless and deserted; present boarding house just sold out; guaranteed harmless. Please be quick." "It reads like a joke, but people, as a rule, do not pay advertisement rates for the publication of their pleasuries," says the London Chronicle.

LEFT ON HER DOORSTEP FOR THIS MOTIVATION

Mrs. A. G. Tuson, of Livermore, Cal., writes: "I picked up from my doorstep one day a little book in which soon became very much interested. My little girl of five years of age has been troubled for a long time with loss of appetite, extreme nervousness and undue fatigue. She was all run down and in a very delicate condition. 'This little book was very convincingly written, and told of the method of extracting the medicinal elements of the cod's liver from the obnoxious oil which she hated so hard for children to take.' 'Just the thing,' said I, 'for my daughter,' and I immediately went to a bottle of Vigol. It helped her wonderfully. She has gained rapidly in flesh and strength, and she does not take cold half so easily. 'I am extremely grateful for the good it has done her, and I hope others who have weak, delicate, or ill children will be benefited by this experience and just give Vigol a trial.'"
